

Back to title page

Title: “Barren, Broken, Bitter, But Bold”

Theme: “Hannah The Woman Of Weary Woe,

Yet A Woman Of Willful Worship”

“Is It To Possible To Worship In Bitterness Of Soul?”

Text: “I Samuel 1: 1 - 28”

I - The Godly Family That Is Mentioned

- A) The Partner Of Hannah
- B) The Problem Of Hannah

II - The Gloomy Future That Is Manifested

- A) The Barren Womb
- B) The Broken Woman

III - The Glaring Foe That Is Mobilized

- A) The Woman That Taunted Hannah
- B) The Words That Troubled Hannah
- C) The Womb That Tormented Hannah

IV - The Gallant Fortitude That Is Maintained

- A) The Bitterness Of Her Soul
- B) The Bigness Of Her Situation

C) The Boldness Of Her Supplication

V - The Great Fuss That Is Mistaken

A) The Misguided Accusation - His Haste

B) The Marvelous Answer - Her Heart

VI - The Good Fortune That Is Mandated

A) The Prayer Of Hannah Is Heard

B) The Problem Of Hannah Is Healed

C) The Pain Of Hannah Is Halted

VII - The Glorious Faith That Is Magnified

A) Hannah Would Worship On A Prophets Promise

“God Will Always Do What He Say’s He Will Do”

B) Hannah Would Worship On A Proven Principle

“What God Has Done In The Past, He Can Do Today”

C) Hannah Would Worship On A Precious Platform

“Surely We Can Willingly Worship In God’s House”

VIII - The Graceful Fruit That Is Memorialized

A) We See The Answer Of Her Prayer

B) We See The Actions Of Her Promise

C) We See The Attitude Of Her Praise

